TIGERS BATTLE GAMECOCKS IN SEASON'S HOME FINALE

The 20th-ranked LSU soccer team (10-2-5, 4-1-3 SEC) welcomes 25th-ranked South Carolina (12-4-1, 4-3-1 SEC) to Baton Rouge on Thursday night in its home finale set for a 7 p.m. kickoff at the LSU Soccer Complex. The Tigers are looking to extend their unbeaten streak to four games as they will face their fourth nationally-ranked opponent of the 2007 season. They are currently unbeaten with a 1-0-2 mark against ranked opponents this year with a 2-2 draw against No. 4 Texas on Sept. 18, a 3-0 shutout of No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5 and a 1-1 draw with No. 18 Georgia on Oct. 7. The Tigers are also unbeaten at home this year with a 5-0-2 record at the LSU Soccer Complex. The squad enters the match in a three-way tie for third place in the Southeastern Conference standings with Auburn and Floirda as each team has earned 15 points to this point in the conference season. The Tennessee Lady Volunteers lead the way with 19 points, while Georgia follows in second with 17 points through eight league matches. The Gamecocks lead the all-time series with a 6-1-1 record and is currently riding a seven-game unbeaten streak against the Tigers.

Media Services

Coach Interviews

All interviews with LSU head coach Brian Lee and assistant coaches Debbie Hensley and Daniel Brizard must be coordinated through the LSU Sports Information Department and women's soccer contact Will Stafford. The LSU Sports Information Department phone number is (225) 578-8226 and Stafford's personal line is (225) 578-4758. Members of the media can contact Stafford at any time in his office Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Player Interviews

Members of the 2007 LSU soccer team are available for interviews with members of the media after the team's daily practice and at the end of each game. Contact Will Stafford in the LSU Sports Information Department at (225) 578-8226 for the team's complete practice schedule. Members of the media MUST contact Stafford before interviewing the student-athletes. Special interview times can be scheduled upon request.

Game Credentials

Media credentials should be requested at least two days prior to a game. Passes will be left at the press gate located at the entrance of the LSU Soccer Complex. All requests should be made by e-mailing Will Stafford at wstaff2@lsu.edu or calling the LSU Sports Information Department at (225) 578-8226. Season passes are also available upon request.

Post-Game Interviews

Post-game interviews, including those with coaches and players from both teams, will be held on the field approximately 10 minutes following each game. A member of the LSU Sports Information Department will take interview requests during the second half of each game. Game information will be provided in the press box, and halftime statistics and complete game books will also be made available to members of the media.

Visiting Radio Information

A courtesy phone is installed in the press box prior to each game for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference teams. Other teams wishing to broadcast a game must contact Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Network at (225) 578-1882.

Rutledge Sets Single Season Record for Assists

LSU sophomore midfielder Malorie Rutledge has proven to be one of the premier attacking players in the SEC this season as she is currently tied for third in the league with 19 points on the season. She is also the league leader in assists as she has recorded a total of 11 assists trough 17 matches, which is a new LSU single season record that eclipses the old mark of 10 assists set by former Tiger standout Stephanie Keating during the 2002 season. Rutledge is enjoying an outstanding season after being named to the SEC All-Freshman Team a year ago as she has either scored or helped create 40 percent of LSU's goals this season. The Tigers boast the premier scoring attack in the SEC as they lead the league in goals (38), assists (36), points (112) and goals per game (2.24), while they rank second in shots per game (18.29).

NCAA Rates LSU No. 21 in Ratings Percentage Index

The NCAA released the updated Ratings Percentage Index for women's soccer on Tuesday, and the Tigers are No. 21 after playing one of the nation's toughest schedules to this point in the season. LSU is building a strong resume to receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament as it is 3-1-3 against teams ranked in the Top 50 of the RPI. The Tigers boast wins over No. 5 Tennessee (3-0), No. 31 Memphis (7-2) and and No. 35 Miami (4-1), while it played to draws with No. 10 Georgia, No. 19 Texas and No. 37 Ole Miss. LSU has yet to take on the likes of No. 15 South Carolina and No. 23 Florida. The RPI is the primary ratings system that the NCAA uses to select at-large teams for the NCAA Tournament.

Vogler Keeping Opponents Off the Scoreboard

Senior goalkeeper Valerie Vogler continues to climb LSU's all-time list for shutouts as she has recorded seven clean sheets thus far in 2007. Vogler opened the season with back-to-back shutouts against Southern Miss on Aug. 31 and Louisiana Tech on Sept. 2, and she has followed by posting clean sheets against McNeese State on Sept. 14, Houston on Sept. 16, Mississippi State on Sept. 28, Tennessee on Oct. 5 and Vanderbilt on Friday night. She now sits in sole possession of third place on the school's all-time list with 13 shutouts in her LSU career. She trails only former Tigers Bonnie Otillio (15) and Robyn DesOrmeaux (13.5), while teammate Jackie Moseley is ranked fifth all-time with six shutouts to her credit. Vogler and Moseley actually combined for the shutout in the Tigers' 4-0 defeat of College of Charleston on Sept. 21.

LSU Soccer Enjoys Season of Firsts for the Program

The LSU soccer team has enjoyed many firsts in the history of the program this season under the direction of third-year head coach Brian Lee. Two weeks, the Tigers earned their first national ranking in program history as they were ranked as high as No. 19. The squad is ranked for the third straight week as they are as high as No. 20 in the country in the latest rankings released Tuesday. LSU also earned its first ever positive result and first ever win over a team ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation after drawing No. 4 Texas, 2-2, on Sept. 18 and shutting out No. 6 Tennessee, 3-0, on Oct. 5. Sophomore Michelle Makasini became the first Tiger in program history to be named the National Player of the Week by any publication as she was named the Soccer America Women's National Player of the Week on Oct. 9. In addition, the Tigers have set three new attendance records in 2007 with the current mark of 2,402 set against Lady Volunteers.

Tigers Crack National Rankings for First Time in History

The Tigers cracked the national rankings for the first time in program history after earning a No. 19 ranking in the Soccer America Top 25 released by the publication on Oct. 8. The Tigers followed by being ranked No. 22 in the Soccer Times Top 25 and No. 29 in the Soccer Buzz Top 30 on Oct. 9. The squad capitalized on a historic weekend during which it defeated one of the nation's Top 10 teams for the first time in history with a 3-0 shutout of No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5 followed by a 1-1 draw with No. 18 Georgia on Oct. 7. The Tigers were also ranked among the top teams in the Central Region as they earned their highest ranking at No. 5 in the regional rankings released by Soccer Buzz and the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Makasini Named Soccer America National Player of the Week

Sophomore Michelle Makasini received national recognition for her performance two weeks ago as she was named the Soccer America Women's National Player of the Week on Oct. 9. Makasini, who was also named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 8, was also named to the Soccer America Women's National Team of the Week, the Soccer Buzz National Elite Team of the Week and the Top Drawer Soccer Women's College Team of the Week for her three-goal performance over the weekend of Oct. 5-7. She scored a pair of goals in LSU's 3-0 shutout of No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5, including the game-winner in the 21st minute, while she tallied the equalizer in a 1-1 draw with No. 18 Georgia on Oct. 7. This marks the first time in program history that LSU has had a student-athlete named the National Player of the Week by any publication.

Tigers Earn First Ever Win Against Top 10 Team

For the first time in the program's 13-year history, the LSU soccer team defeated a team ranked among the nation's top 10 squads with a dominating 3-0 shutout of the sixth-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers on Oct. 5 at the LSU Soccer Complex. This also marks the first win for the Tigers over the Lady Vols in a series that dates back to the 1996 season, while it is just their second win against a ranked opponent all-time after defeating No. 15 Florida State, 2-1, on Sept. 8, 2002. The squad is now 1-3-1 all-time against teams ranked in the Top 10 and 2-23-3 all-time against teams ranked in the Top 25. LSU is unbeaten in its last four matches against ranked opponents (1-0-3). This also marks the second positive result for the Tigers against a Top 10 opponent this season as they went on the road and battled No. 4 Texas to a 2-2 draw on Sept. 18.

Soccer Shatters Attendance Record for Third Time

For the third time this season, the Tigers have shattered their all-time attendance record as a total of 2,402 fans made it through the turnstiles on Oct. 5 to see the squad upset sixth-ranked Tennessee by a 3-0 margin. That number eclipsed the previous mark of 2,160 fans who made it out to the LSU Soccer Complex on Sept. 14 to see the Tigers take on in-state rival McNeese State. LSU accomplished the feat for the first time this season in its season opener by drawing a crowd of 1,868 for its match against Southern Miss on Aug. 31. The Tigers are on pace for a record-setting season in attendance as they are averaging 1,366 fans in seven home matches this season, which currently ranks second in the SEC in average attendance. The Tigers finished No. 24 in the country in average attendance a year ago as an average of 817 fans packed the stands in 10 home matches during the 2006 season.

Yepez Receives National Honors Following Outstanding Week

After earning her first career SEC Offensive Player of the Week honor on Sept. 24, LSU forward Rachel Yepez was named to to both the Soccer America Women's National Team of the Week and the Soccer Buzz National Elite Team of the Week after scoring three goals and recording one assist in the final non-conference week of the year. The sophomore from Fayetteville, N.C., scored LSU's first goal of the match and assisted on the second in a 2-2 tie with No. 4 Texas on Sept. 18, while tallying a pair of goals in the Tigers' 4-0 shutout of College of Charleston on Sept. 21, including the game-winner just 1:15 into the match. Yepez has been named to four National Teams of the Week to this point in the season as she was also named to both the Soccer Buzz National Elite Team of the Week and the Top Drawer Soccer Women's College Team of the Week on Sept. 11.

LSU Shatters Attendance Record in Season Opener

The Tigers kicked off the 2007 season on Aug. 31 with a bang as it dominated the Southern Miss Golden Eagles by the score of 3-0 in front of a new record crowd of 1,828 at the LSU Soccer Complex. The Tigers shattered the previous all-time attendance record by 139 as 1,689 fans witnessed a classic SEC Western Division showdown with Ole Miss on Sept. 30, 2005. LSU has attracted a number of large crowds in the Brian Lee era, establishing seven of the top 10 attendances in the 12-year history of the LSU Soccer Complex. The squad hopes to crack the 1,000 mark in average attendance with one home game remaining against South Carolina on Oct. 25.

Tigers Play No. 4 Texas to 2-2 Draw in Austin

The Tigers earned a positive result against a team ranked among the nation's Top 10 teams for the first time in the program's 13-year history as they went on the road battled the fourth-ranked Texas Longhorns to a 2-2 draw on Sept. 18. The squad was previously 0-3 all-time against teams ranked in the Top 10 and 1-23-1 all-time against teams ranked in the Top 25. At that time, it was just the third positive result against a team ranked among the nation's Top 25 squads as they defeated 15th-ranked Florida State by the score of 2-1 on Sept. 8, 2002, while playing 12th-ranked Florida to a 1-1 draw on Oct. 22 of last year. LSU has since earned their first ever victory over an opponent ranked among the nation's Top 10 with a 3-0 shutout of then No. 6 Tennessee at the LSU Soccer Complex on Oct. 5.

Tigers Match Longest Unbeaten Streak in Team History

The LSU soccer team saw its 10-game unbeaten streak snapped on Sept. 23 with a 3-0 loss to Davidson. The Tigers tied a team record as they had not suffered a defeat dating back to a 2-1 road loss at the hands of South Carolina on Oct. 20, 2006. The squad also posted its best start in program history as it remained unbeaten through its first eight games in 2007. The streak included a pair of draws against opponents ranked among the Top 15 teams in the nation and two dominating wins over regionally-ranked opponents. The Tigers kicked off their streak at home with a 1-1 draw against the 12th-ranked Florida Gators on Oct. 22, 2006, before ending the season with a 1-0 shutout of Arkansas on Oct. 27. They also beat regionally-ranked opponents Memphis (7-2) and Miami (4-1) this season, while earning its first ever positive result against an opponent ranked in the nation's Top 10 with a 2-2 daw against Texas on Sept. 18.

Tigers Benefit from Quick Strike Offense

The Tigers have certainly shown the ability to score goals this season as they currently lead the Southeastern Conference with 27 through nine games. But they have also shown the ability to build momentum by scoring quickly as they have scored two goals less than five minutes apart six times so far this season. In fact, they have scored goals within 44 seconds apart four times in 2007. Against Memphis on Sept. 6, Rachel Yepez (16:09) and Malorie Rutledge (16:53) scored just 44 seconds apart in the first half. Later in the first half against Memphis, Roslyn Jones (30:21) and Yepez (30:35) actually tied a team record of the fastest two goals scored by scoring just 14 seconds apart. The Tigers struck quick again against McNeese State on Sept. 14 as Yepez (22:23, 23:04) scored a pair of goals just 41 seconds apart, while Veronica Godbolt (74:02) and Jones (74:27) added goals 25 seconds apart in the second half.

LSU Enjoys Record-Setting Weekend for Attendance

LSU opened its season in front of the largest weekend crowd in the history of the LSU Soccer Complex as a total of 2,763 fans packed the stadium to see a pair of dominating performances by the Tigers on Aug. 31 and Sept. 2. The Tigers shut out Southern Miss on Aug. 31 by the score of 3-0 in front of a then record crowd of 1,828 and followed with a 2-0 blanking of Louisiana Tech on Sept. 2 in front of the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history at 935. The Tigers have since shattered the attendance record for a second time this season when 2,160 fans packed the stands against McNeese State on Sept. 14.

Potts Named to First Preseason All-SEC Soccer Team

The Southeastern Conference released its first ever preseason All-SEC team for soccer on Aug. 23, and LSU sophomore Chelsea Potts earned distinction as one of the SEC's premier defenders in a vote of the league's 12 head coaches. Potts, a Second-Team All-SEC selection and member of the SEC All-Freshman Team a year ago, joins 13 other standouts from around the conference who have earned preseason first-team recognition. The coaches preseason All-SEC team is made up of at least 11 standouts from around the conference as each of the league's 12 head coaches voted for three forwards, three midfielders, three defenders, one goalkeeper and one at-large candidate. No ties in the voting were broken.
