

Get Started with Ticket Marketplace

To begin to resell your LSU Athletics tickets or to purchase premium tickets posted for sale by other season ticket holders, you will first need to register on the LSU Ticket Marketplace at www.LSUsports.net and click the button titled "Tickets". Next, click on the Ticket Marketplace link. After reviewing the benefits of the Ticket Marketplace, click on the "Ticket Marketplace" button. Simply register via the "Register" link located on the right of the screen.

You will need to enter your Tigers season account number as well as your pin number in order to successfully register on the Marketplace. Once you have successfully registered, click on the "My Inventory" menu button to begin to post your tickets for sale. If you have forgotten your account number and/or pin number, or if you experience any difficulties while navigating the site, please email tickets@lsu.edu.

THE BASICS

Ticket Marketplace Basic Functions

To navigate through the Ticket Marketplace environment, first login and then simply use the menu buttons that are located in the menu bar near the top of the Ticket Marketplace window.

My Inventory

This feature displays tickets you have available to sell as well as the status of any tickets that you have posted for sale.

My Market

View tickets you currently have up for sale and allows you to change your end sale time or withdraw tickets that have not been purchased.

1. Why would I want to sell my tickets?

If you can't make it to a game, you can place your tickets for sale on the LSU Ticket Marketplace. Easily sell your unused tickets online under the umbrella of LSU Athletics.

2. Who is eligible to sell tickets?

LSU Football, Basketball, and Baseball season ticket holders are eligible to sell their unused season tickets on the LSU Ticket Marketplace.

3. What do I receive when my tickets sell?

Tickets may be posted for sale on the LSU Ticket Marketplace at face value. For each ticket that sells, you will receive credits for the next season's ticket invoice. You can review the status of your marketplace account under "Sales History."

4. How do I receive credit for my tickets that have sold?

You will receive a credit for the face value of your sold tickets on next season's season ticket invoice. If you choose not to renew your season tickets next season, you will receive a refund after next season's ticket renewal deadline has past.

5. How do I post my tickets for sale?

Under "My Inventory," or home page, click Sell next to the game you would like to offer for sale on the site. Be sure to hold on to the tickets until further e-mail notice. If your tickets don't sell, your original tickets are still valid and available for you to use at the event.

6. When can I place tickets for sale?

LSU Athletics will determine the events that will be available on the Ticket Marketplace. In most cases you will be allowed to post your tickets for sale to all events for which you own tickets.

BENEFITS

-  Receive credit towards next season's tickets!
-  Support LSU Athletics by filling Tiger Stadium.
-  Sell your tickets with confidence on the LSU sponsored Ticket Marketplace.

7. How can I be sure that I placed my tickets for sale?

After placing tickets for sale, you will receive an e-mail message confirmation. You can also review a list of tickets you have posted for sale under "My Market."

8. How many tickets can I place for sale?

You may place as many tickets for sale as you wish; however, the total number of seats for sale at one time for a specific event and the total number of events you can sell over the course of a season may be restricted by LSU Athletics. This means there may be occasions when you will not be able to list tickets for sale. When selling tickets for a specific game, note that if you have a large number of tickets to sell, it may be best to sell them in several smaller blocks instead of one large block.

9. What do I do with the tickets I've placed for sale?

You will be notified via e-mail when your tickets have been sold. Ownership of the sold tickets will then be transferred to the ticket buyer. After receiving notification that your tickets have been sold you must destroy your season tickets for that game. If you or someone else attempts to use your original tickets for admittance after they have been sold, all privileges to the LSU Ticket Marketplace including, but not limited to, buying and selling of season tickets via the LSU Ticket Marketplace may be revoked. If your tickets don't sell you will be notified via e-mail and your original tickets will be valid and available for you to use at the event.

10. Will I be notified if my tickets sell?

Yes. When your tickets have been purchased, you will receive an e-mail message confirming your tickets have been sold.

11. Can I cancel a ticket sale?

Once you have placed tickets for sale, you can cancel the sale by selecting "My Market." Choose the ticket sale you'd like to cancel and click Withdraw Tickets. However, once a ticket sells you may no longer cancel that sale.

12. What happens if my tickets don't sell?

If your tickets don't sell, you will receive an e-mail message telling you so. Your original tickets will remain valid and can be used to attend the event.

13. When do ticket sales end?

Ticket sales must be completed five hours prior to game time.
