John Brady

Head Coach • 10th Year

When John Brady first put a team on the floor of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, his Tiger squad was undermanned, undersized and underdogs.

Teams hated to play the Tigers then because John Brady coached his team hard and they responded with several strong performances against the leagues top teams, but not many wins.

Now entering his 10th year as the head coach at LSU, John Brady has coached the LSU team as only he knows how -- with heart and passion, and knowledge of the game that makes him one of the best at in-game decisions. The LSU Tigers, in 2006, won the SEC regular season title with a 14-2 record and won the Western Division for the second straight year. LSU has won 26 SEC games the last two years, the most in the league in that period and LSU concluded the 2005-06 season with 17 straight SEC home wins, the most in the 35-year history of the Maravich Assembly Center. In the process Brady was recognized for his coaching job for the second time as the SEC Coach of the Year.

LSU has advanced to postseason play each of the last five years and six times in the last seven seasons. LSU has had five consecutive winning seasons under John Brady and only three times in the program history has there been longer consecutive years of winning.

In the last seven seasons, LSU has won 141 games, an average of 20 a year.

Three times John Brady has coached the SEC Player of the Year (Glen Davis-2006, Brandon Bass-2005, Stromile Swift-2000) and he has coached four SEC Freshman of the Year (Tyrus Thomas-2006, Glen Davis-2005, Brandon Bass-2004, Torris Bright-2000).

Brady's 167 wins in nine seasons is the third most wins by an LSU basketball coach and only two LSU basketball coaches have served longer tenures.

John Brady has built a program at LSU with a record of success that is hard to argue with. He has given the LSU program the direction to grow and the chance to shine again.

When Brady arrived on campus in March 1997 and was given the job of rebuilding the program, make no mistake; he knew his program would be riddled with shortcomings because of NCAA-imposed sanctions. He knew he would have the chance to build a foundation based on responsibility and accountability.

Brady's knowledge of the game and his belief in discipline and responsibility for actions on and off the floor have made the LSU program strong again, one that LSU fans are proud of because they feel a part of the program.

Brady's plan isn't just taking place on a hardwood floor in the Maravich Center. He has worked hard to show the public that that athletic and academic pursuits of the players should be challenged to the fullest. That's part of the reason that LSU basketball is not only a success on the court, but in the classroom as well. Hours are passed and posted toward graduation on a regular basis by scholarship players.

The team, despite missing nearly four weeks of school during the SEC and NCAA Final Four run, averaged a 3.01 GPA during the spring semester.

Brady came to LSU after six highly successful seasons at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala.

In his six-year tenure (1992-97), he turned the team into a consistent winner, posting a record of 89-77. In Brady's six years at Samford, the team had three first-team and five second-team all-league selections.

Now at LSU, the numbers are beginning to work for Brady both on and off the floor, with 15 players earning All-SEC honors, 32 earning All-SEC academic honors and 15 who have received their degrees from LSU.

The 52-year-old Brady is the father of two daughters (Brittany-16, Brooke-12) and is married to the former Misty Champagne.

The LSU program is now solid both athletically and academically. The top players in the country are seriously putting LSU at the top of their lists and Brady is earning the respect of his peers throughout the nation. The plan to bring LSU back to being a constant player at the top of the SEC and the nation has been accomplished and now the work is being done to keep LSU there for years to come.

Last Game -- Tennessee 70, LSU 67 (February 6 -- Knoxville, Tenn.)

The Tigers again did some good things offensively, but 20 turnovers and 19 points off the turnovers by Tennessee hurt LSU's chances to stop what is now a six-game losing streak ... LSU hit 44.9 percent from the floor (22-of-49) and 7-of-14 from the arc to just 38.6 percent from the floor for Tennessee with the Vols just 5-of-21 at the arc ... LSU out rebounded Tennessee, 39-30 ... But the Vols limited Glen Davis to his lowest scoring total since his freshman year with five points on 2-of-10 shooting ... Tasmin Mitchell picked up the slack with 23 points, tying his career high, while Terry Martin had 15 ... Garrett Temple had seven assists and Ben Voogd five assists.

In that game, five Arkansas players were in double figures -- Steven Hill 16, Sonny Weems 13, Charles Thomas (10 rebounds) and Gary Ervin 11 points each and Darian Townes 10 ... Tigers Conference Home Win Streak Ended At 19

LSU's conference home winning streak ended with Vanderbilt's 64-53 win over LSU (1/24) ... The streak ended at 19 games, the longest in the 36-year-history of the Maravich Center ... The streak extended over four seasons, starting with a win over Ole Miss in the final game of the 2004 season ... LSU then went 8-0 at home in both 2005 and 2006, with two wins added to it in 2007 ... The 19-game run was the third longest in the 99 years of the program ... The longest home conference winning streaks in LSU program history:

1. 26 -- Feb. 13, 1933 to Jan. 31, 1936
2. 20 -- Jan. 14, 1952 to Feb. 22, 1954
3. 19 -- March 3, 2004 to Jan. 24, 2007 (longest in 36-year history over Maravich Center)
4. 15 -- Jan. 3, 1981 to Feb. 10, 1982
5. 12 -- Jan. 14, 1984 to Jan. 26, 1985

Sluggish Starts ...

In the first six SEC games, the Tigers found no shooting touch in the first half of play, shooting just 32 percent in the first half of the opening six league games:

- At Alabama -- 30 missed shots (12-of-42)
Auburn -- 22 missed shots (10-of-32)
Ole Miss -- 13 missed shots (11-of-24)
At Arkansas -- 21 missed shots (10-of-31)
Vanderbilt -- 24 missed shots (10-of-34)
At Georgia -- 17 missed shots (11-of-28)

Speaking of shooting, breaking down the game, LSU was 10-of-18 on layups, 9-of-43 on jumpers and 1-1 on dunks against Vanderbilt (1/24) ... Against Arkansas, in the 72-52 loss, LSU was 7-of-17 on layups, 13-of-40 on jumpers and 1-of-1 on dunks.

Strong Starts ...

In the last three conference games, the Tigers have started much better, hitting 60-plus percent at home against Alabama (1/28) and at Mississippi State (2/3) before coming out with a 43.5 percent first half against Tennessee (2/6).

End Game Has Hurt Tigers

In the two of LSU's six losses, the Tigers had chances to win with the lead, but couldn't do enough to finish the deal ... At Georgia (1/24), LSU led the game, 54-52, on a Darnell Lazare layup with 4:59 to play ... LSU would lose the game, 57-54, on a three-pointer with 0.6 to play ... In between the LSU layup and the Georgia three pointers the Tigers had two missed shots sandwiched around three turnovers.

Against Alabama (1/28), the Tigers led 68-63 with 4:34 to play ... LSU would lose the game 73-70 ... LSU finished the game 1-of-6 from the field with three turnovers ... Alabama would convert on five of six possessions during the same period to get the lead with 6-of-6 shooting at the free throw line as part of the situation.

At State (2/3), the Tigers were unable to keep pace with the barrage of threes by Mississippi State. Up 62-61 with 9:20 to play, Mississippi State took the lead for good, 63-62, at the 7:54 mark as LSU was outscored, 24-16, the rest of the way, including an early run of 18-7 that gave State a double digit lead entering the final 52 seconds.

The Points Good of Late Offensively

The Tigers finally got the points on its side of the ledger back on the right track, scoring 70 against Alabama (1/28) and 78 at Mississippi State (2/3) after scoring under 60 in the three previous SEC contests ... The last time LSU scored under 60 in three consecutive SEC games was when the Tigers scored under 60 in the final four games of the 2001-02 season ... LSU is 0-4 this year scoring under 60 and 10-53 in the Brady era when scoring under 60.

But Defensively...

But the defensive points have become too many for LSU to handle in the last three games as well ... After keeping games close by keeping opponents from scoring over 60, the Tigers have given up 70 or more in the last three games, making seven times this year (LSU 0-7) and LSU is 26-70 when giving up more than 70 in the John Brady era.

A Six-Game Losing Streak

LSU has not lost six consecutive conference games since the middle of the 2002 conference season ... One has to go back to the 2000-01 season when injuries forced LSU to play the last 15 conference games to find a longer conference losing streak.

The Season's Not Over

In a year when the West is so crazy from top to bottom, LSU's 2-7 start certainly doesn't mean the season is over even at this point. All one has to do is look at recent history to see what still remains a possibility for the Tigers.

During the 2002-03 season, LSU had a five-game losing streak (the last time it happened to LSU before the present streak) that put LSU at 1-6 in the league after seven games ... LSU was 2-6 at the halfway point and 3-8 after a Feb. 15 loss at Kentucky ... LSU won its final five games of the season to finish at 8-8, 21-11 overall and go to the NCAA Tournament.

LSU Quick Notes From The Games This Season

LSU has out rebounded the last two teams by a combined 19 boards -- 10 at Mississippi State (2/3), nine at Tennessee (2/6) ... LSU had 17 assists at Tennessee for its 22 made buckets.

The 85 points Mississippi State scored was the most in a conference game allowed by LSU since giving up 89 in an 89-58 loss in Lexington to Kentucky on Jan. 22, 2005 ... The game marked the first time in 13 games this year LSU has lost when out shooting the opponent (53.4% to 50.9%) and just the 28th time in 178 games in the Brady era when LSU has lost when having a better percentage than the opposition.

LSU's 9-of-9 at the free throw line against Alabama (1/31) marked the first time LSU had been 100 percent from the stripe since making 17-of-17 against Kentucky on Feb. 29, 2004 ... LSU had the lead at the half against Alabama (1/31), marking the third time this year that LSU has lost with a halftime lead ... LSU is 145-24 under John Brady with a halftime advantage ... LSU in the last two games (Alabama-Mississippi State) has had a lead with 10 minutes to play, just the third and fourth time that LSU has lost a game with a lead with 10 minutes to play this year (13-4) and it is now just 22 times in 175 games that LSU has lost in the Brady era with a lead entering the final 10 minutes ... The lineup change against Alabama was the fifth different lineup fielded by the Tigers this year.

LSU never had the lead in the Vanderbilt game (1/24) ... Against Ole Miss (1/17), Garrett Temple equaled his career high in assists for the third time with seven ... Against Auburn (1/13), he became the second player this season to record four blocks in a game ... The win over Connecticut (1/6) marked the third time that Coach Brady has defeated a Hall of Fame coach, this time Jim Calhoun ... Brady's teams also have wins over Duke under Coach Mike Krzyzewski (last year in the NCAA Tournament) and two wins over Lute Olson at Arizona (2000, 2002) ... The 49 points by UConn was the fewest points scored in a game since a 46-40 win against Villanova in 2002 and the fewest points scored against a non-conference opponent since a 49-48 loss to Hartford on Dec. 29, 1986.

Playing three straight nights for the first time since November 2001 in the HCF Classic (12/27-29), the Tigers were amazingly consistent in their field goal shooting: Vs. Wright State -- 28-of-50 -- 56.0%; Vs. Miss. Valley -- 35-of-62 -- 56.5%; Vs. Samford -- 24-of-43 -- 55.8% ... With LSU scoring 92 against Mississippi Valley State (12/28), the Tigers are 28-0 in the Brady era when scoring 90 or more points and 67-2 when scoring 80 or more.

Washington's 8-of-13 three-pointers made the Huskies (12/20) the first team to shoot 60 percent from the three-point line (61.5 percent) since the University of New Orleans pulled the same numbers (8-of-13) in a 2004 game ... While Oregon State (12/17) made 11-of-21 threes against the Tigers, the Beavers were just 8-of-37 from inside the arc ... Davis' fourth consecutive 20-point game against OSU (12/17) made for the longest string of consecutive 20-point games since Jaime Lloreda did it in four games in the final game of the 2004 season and the first three games of the 2005 season ... Glen Davis played all 45 minutes against the Longhorns (12/10) and that is a high in minutes for his LSU career ... Previously he played 42 in overtime win at West Virginia in 2005.

The Tigers have made 70 more field goals than the opponents ... LSU opponents have made eight more three-point field goal than opponents (130-138) ... The 2002-03 season was the last year LSU made more three-pointers in a season than the opponents ... The Tigers have made more free throws than the opponents in every year of the John Brady era.

The Pete Maravich Assembly Center

This is the 36th season of play in the building and LSU is now 411-138 (74.9 percent) overall in the building and 198-108 in SEC contests (64.7 percent) ... LSU is 11-3 at home this year.

Tigers Fall Out Of National Polls After 17 Straight

The men's basketball season started the season with its second highest preseason ranking ever in the Associated Press media poll when the Tigers were picked No. 5 ... On Jan. 29, LSU fell out of the national polls after being ranked for 12 straight polls this year and 17 total dating back to the final five polls of the 2005-06 season ... This streak was the longest consecutive week string since the Tigers were in 38 straight polls from the preseason poll in the 1989-90 season through the first two polls of the 1991-92 season ... LSU is 252-91 when ranked in the Associated Press poll ... The Tigers are 2-4 this year against Top 25 teams in the AP poll (2-3 at home, losing to No. 24 Wichita State, beating No. 6 A&M and No. 18 Connecticut and losing to No. 19 Alabama; 0-2 on the road, losing at No. 17 Washington and No. 14 Alabama).

Tigers Trying to Keep Attendance Averages Moving Forward

LSU's 66-49 victory over the 18th-ranked Connecticut Huskies (1/6) drew a paid total of 13,121 putting the game seventh best in the John Brady era and the second largest paid attendance since the building was configured to its present capacity of 13,215 for men's basketball prior to the 2005-06 season. Last season, LSU drew 13,468 paid for the LSU-Georgia game ... The top four paid attendances of the Brady era came in the 2000 season and many of the Top 20 for the 36-year history of the building occurred when the capacity of the building was over 14,000.

The actual scanner attendance of 12,023 was also the sixth best regular season actual attendance for an LSU home game in the Brady era and the second best in the Brady era for a non-conference regular season game behind the 13,488 who saw the LSU-Arizona game in 2000 in a bigger configured arena.

In December, the 12,053 paid crowd for the Texas A&M game (12/5) was the largest November-December attendance for a basketball game in the John Brady era at the Maravich Assembly Center ... Over 2,300 students attended the game, nearly filling the 2,500 seats that students have for their use in the building.

LSU has a paid average of 9,821 with four home Southeastern Conference games remaining, an increase of 720 from the same number of games a year ago. The Tigers are trying to improve their paid attendance average for the sixth consecutive year. LSU's paid attendance average was 8,106 in 2001 and last year's final total was 9,409.

Davis Earns First-Team Preseason A-A Honors

LSU junior forward Glen Davis was named preseason All-American by the Associated Press on a team that featured three Southeastern Conference players. Davis, a first-team Wooden All-American last season and a second-team AP All-American a year ago, joins Joakim Noah of Florida and Ronald Steele of Alabama in making first-team A-A. Tyler Hansbrough of North Carolina and Brandon Rush of Kansas round out the first five. Davis (who led the SEC in scoring and rebounding a year ago to earn Player of the Year honors), Noah and Steele are all juniors, while Hansbrough and Rush are sophomores. Hansbrough was named on 65 of the 72 media ballots, one more than Noah. Steele received 55 votes, while Davis had 51 and Rush 26. UCLA junior guard Arron Affalo was the next-leading vote getter with 20.

Since the AP preseason team started in 1986-87, Davis is just the third player from LSU to make the first five, joining Chris Jackson in 1989-90 and Shaquille O'Neal prior to the 1991-92 season. Ronald Dupree is the only other LSU player to have been mentioned on a ballot, prior to the 2001-02 season.

Davis Makes Wooden Mid-Season Cut

LSU junior Glen Davis has made the first cut for the Wooden Award and All-American team as presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club ... Davis is the only one on the final 30 who was named a Wooden All-American squad member a season ago.

Temple On Bilas List Of Best Defenders

LSU sophomore Garrett Temple was one of several players on a season-opening list by ESPN analyst Jay Bilas noting the best defenders in the country at this time of the year ... Four other SEC players were on the list of 20 -- Corey Brewer, Florida; Joakim Noah, Florida; Ronald Steele, Alabama; and Mike Mercer, Georgia ... Temple earned his reputation as a defender with his effort limiting J. J. Redick of Duke in the Tigers' Sweet 16 upset.

Brady Coached 300th LSU Game Against State

Coach John Brady coached his 300th game as the LSU head basketball coach in Starkville against Mississippi State (2/3) ... Brady has the third longest tenure of any LSU coach (10 years) and only Harry Rabenhorst (29 years, 604 games) and Dale Brown (25 years, 749 games) had longer tenures in Baton Rouge ... All three won multiple SEC titles at LSU and took at least one team to the NCAA Final Four:

Harry Rabenhorst -- SEC Titles: 1935, 1953, 1954; NCAA Final Four: 1953
 Dale Brown -- SEC Titles: 1979, 1981, 1985, 1991; NCAA Final Four: 1981, 1986

Brady In Elite Company

Brady's two SEC titles makes him one of just 15 coaches in SEC history to have won at least two SEC regular season titles joining Adolph Rupp (27), Joe Hall (8), Tubby Smith (5), Dale Brown and Babe McCarthy (4), Ray Mears, C. M. Newton and Harry Rabenhorst (3) and Brady, Billy Donovan, Eddie Fogler, Rick Pitino, Nolan Richardson, Ray Skinner and John Mayer (2).

As far as Western Division championships, only three coaches -- Tubby Smith (7), Rick Pitino and Nolan Richardson (4) have won more division titles than John Brady ... Billy Donovan is the other coach to have won three division titles.

Brady Now 23rd on SEC All-Time Coaching List

John Brady enters the game with 180 career wins at LSU, 23rd best in the history of the SEC in wins and tied for the third highest win total of any of the active league coaches ... Brady with the Louisiana Tech win (12/23) moved past longtime Auburn Coach Sonny Smith into solo 23rd spot ... Brady needs six more wins to match another more recent Auburn coach, Cliff Ellis, at 22nd at 186 wins ... Only Tubby Smith (UGA, UK) and Billy Donovan (UF) are the active SEC coaches with more victories.

Glen Davis

After a game in which he was one off his career high with 27 points, hitting 10-of-16 field goals and three treys, at Mississippi State (2/3), the junior All-American had one of the lowest scoring games of his career with five points at Tennessee (2/6) ... Davis was 2-of-10 from the field and 1-of-4 from the free throw line ... It marked just the second time since the start of his sophomore season that he has failed to score in double figures, a span of 59 games.

Davis did have some good stat numbers in his 39 minutes in the game with 13 rebounds and four assists ... In the last four games, he has had 19 assists combined, including career highs of six assists each against Georgia (1/28) and Alabama games (1/31) ... Davis is averaging 2.4 assists per game.

Despite the off night from the field, Davis is hitting 147-of-301 field goals or 48.8 percent, sixth best in the SEC.

One of his best games since the first of the year came under extenuating circumstances when he doubled up at Alabama (1/9) with 24 points and 17 rebounds ... The game came just two days after a two-car automobile accident in which someone hit Davis' car trying to make a left turn in front of the LSU junior, leaving him in the hospital for a few hours undergoing X-rays and a CAT scan ... X-rays proved negative, but he had extremely sore ribs that forced him to wince with each substantial contact ... Davis played 39 minutes against the Tide and posted a rebound total just one off his career high and his stat line also showed three blocks and a 9-of-16 night from the field with a 5-of-5 effort at the free throw line ... He also made a three-pointer for what was then the fifth straight game.

The 17 rebounds equaled the single game best this year by a player in the conference as Joakim Noah had 17 boards against Florida A&M on Dec. 17.

The double double vs. Mississippi State (2/3) gives him an SEC leading 12 double doubles this season:

- Vs. Wichita State (11/25) -- 17 pts - 13 reb.
- At Tulane (12/2) -- 20 pts - 13 reb.
- Vs. Texas A&M (12/5) -- 24 pts - 10 reb.
- Vs. Texas (12/10) -- 21 pts - 10 reb.
- At Oregon State (12/17) -- 22 pts, 13 reb.
- Vs. La. Tech (12/23) -- 23 pts, 14 reb.
- Vs. Wright State (12/27) -- 26 pts, 12 reb.
- Vs. Miss. Valley (12/28) -- 19 pts, 13 reb.
- At Alabama (1/9) -- 24 pts., 17 reb.
- Vs. Auburn (1/13) -- 11 pts, 11 reb.
- At Georgia (1/28) -- 18 pts, 14 reb.
- At Miss. State (2/3) -- 27 pts., 10 reb.

Davis enters the weekend as he has almost since the beginning of the season -- second in the league in scoring and first in the league in rebounds:

Scoring

1. Chris Lofton, UT -- 20.9 points per game
2. Glen Davis, LSU -- 17.9 points per game
3. Tre Kelley, USC -- 17.7 points per game

Rebounding

1. Glen Davis, LSU -- 10.4 rebounds per game

2. Brandon Wallace, USC -- 9.6 rebounds per game

3. Jermareo Davidson, UA -- 9.0 rebounds per game

Davis is trying to become the first player to win back-to-back league rebound totals since Erwin Dudley of Alabama won the league rebounding title in 2001-2002-2003 ... Jaime Lloreda in 2004 was the last LSU player to average double figures in both points and rebounds and before that you have to go back to 1993 and Geert Hammink.

Davis has had 41 double doubles in his career and the State game (2/3) marked the 27th time Davis has scored 20 or more points in his career and the eighth time this season.

In the league, Davis is averaging 15.4 points per game (seventh best) and a league games only 10.2 rebounds (best in the SEC) ... Davis is also working on a long consecutive game starting streak which started the second game of his career ... Coach John Brady brought him off the bench in his career opener, but he has been called from the bench by the PA announcer for the last 887 games ... In a year when three of the Associated Press first-team preseason All-Americans are from the SEC, Davis is trying to post back-to-back player of the year honors in the league for the first time since Corliss Williamson of Arkansas was named player of the year in both 1994 and 1995 ... LSU's Pete Maravich was a three-time AP Player of the Year, while Chris Jackson was a consensus POY in 1989 and 1990 followed by Shaquille O'Neal in 1991 and 1992.

Davis is one of just five players in LSU history to block 100 career shots joining Shaquille O'Neal, Stromile Swift, Brandon Bass and Jose Vargas ... He is presently third all-time behind only O'Neal (412) and Swift (130) with 107 career blocks.

Davis, 13th in the league in free throw percentage at 70.1 percent (103-of-147, minimum 2.5 made per game), is fifth in free throw makes in LSU history with 393 ... Davis is averaging 35.43 minutes per game, third best in the SEC ... Davis also is the league leader in offensive rebounds at 3.74 per game.

Davis Heading Toward 1,500 Career Points, 900 Career Rebounds1,500 Could Come Saturday

Glen Davis is continuing his march toward 1,500 career points and 900 rebounds at LSU ... He enters the week now 15th in scoring with 1,486 points ... He is 14 points shy of 1,500 and just 15 shy of Ricky Blanton in 14th place ... He stands eighth all-time in rebounding at the school with 852 boards, 18 shy of Ned Clark in seventh at 870 and another 30 away from 900 ... There have been just five players in LSU history to reach the 1,500 points-900 rebounds plateau:

Durand Macklin -- 1977-81 -- 2,080 points -- 1,276 rebounds

Shaquille O'Neal -- 1990-92 -- 1,941 points -- 1,217 rebounds

Bob Pettit -- 1952-94 -- 1,916 points -- 1,039 rebounds

Ronald Dupree -- 2000-03 -- 1,726 points -- 907 rebounds

Leonard Mitchell -- 1981-84 -- 1,508 points -- 922 rebounds

Once Davis hits 1,500-900, he will join Shaquille O'Neal as the only two LSU players to have 1,500 points, 900 rebounds and 100 blocks in their LSU careers.

Chris Johnson

LSU Coach John Brady said he would play against Alabama (1/31), but Johnson got more than playing time, he got his first collegiate start ... He responded by playing 18 minutes, hitting four-of-eight field goal attempts, all four free throws and had three blocks in a 13 point performance ... It was the first double figure game of his career, topping his previous high of nine in eight minutes in the season opener at Nicholls State.

Johnson also started the next game, playing a career high 24 minutes at Mississippi State (2/3) where he scored four points with a career best seven boards and two more blocks.

Johnson came off the bench to play seven minutes at Tennessee (2/6) and in the last three games, the sophomore has played 49 minutes, scoring 20 points on 7-of-15 shooting, including two three pointers with eight boards and six blocked shots.

Johnson played 43 minutes in 10 games last year, scoring 13 points ... This year, Johnson has played 82 minutes in 12 games, scoring an average of 3.4 points per game and 1.6 rebounds.

Terry Martin

Martin came off the bench at Tennessee (2/6) after starting the previous seven games and posted his second straight double figure scoring game with 15 points on 4-of-8 field goal shooting, including 3-of-6 from the arc.

The transfer from Texas Tech moved into the starting lineup for the first time against Auburn (1/13) ... In that first start for LSU against Auburn, Martin in 34 minutes made 8-of-16 field goals and five three-pointers for the second time in a 23-point effort ... Martin had another solid effort against Ole Miss (1/17), hitting 4-of-7 from the arc as part of a 15-point night ... In his first three LSU starts, he made 16-of-39 field goals, including 12-of-25 three-pointers.

Against Mississippi State (2/3), Martin hit 6-of-11 field goals, including two treys to finish with 14 points and five rebounds ... Martin has 10 double figure scoring games in the 15 games he has played since becoming eligible prior to the Dec. 20 Washington game.

Martin averages 11.0 points per game, 2.5 rebounds and 1.1 assists per game ... Martin is hitting 37-of-81 three-pointers, 47.5 percent for the season ... Martin is hitting 43.1 percent of his threes in conference games (22-of-51), sixth in the league.

Martin made his debut in an LSU uniform against Washington (12/20) and scored 13 points in 20 minutes, including 3-of-7 from three-point range ... In his first chance to play in the Maravich Center against Louisiana Tech (12/23), the Monroe, La., native hit his first five three-point attempts before finishing 5-of-6 from the arc and 7-of-9 overall for 19 points.

Martin, a 6-6 guard who will have two and a half years of eligibility remaining for the Tigers, played 14 games as a freshman at Texas Tech in the fall of 2005, starting eight before moving back to his home state ... Martin averaged 7.4 points per game, 3.6 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game, playing an average of 24.7 minutes for the Red Raiders ... Martin made 38 percent of his three-point attempts (16-of-42) and had six double figure scoring games.

Dameon Mason

Mason returned to the starting lineup at Tennessee, playing 14 minutes, scoring three points ... Mason came off the bench against Vanderbilt (1/24) and played his most minutes (25) since the HCF Classic (12/27-29) and did some good things to help the Tigers in the second half get back in the contest ... Mason had six points with five rebounds, two assists, a block and three steals.

Mason's best games probably came on the three nights of the HCF Classic (12/27-29) and he certainly looked to be over the effects of the migraine headaches he suffered just prior to and during the Tigers' trip to the Pacific Northwest.

Against Wright State (12/27), Mason hit 5-of-7 field goal attempts, including both three-point attempts in 24 minutes with a career high 14 points ... The next night against Mississippi Valley (12/28), Mason came back to his 4-of-6 field goals for 13 points and concluded the tournament, hitting 5-of-6 against Samford (12/29) to finish with 11 points ... For the three games, Mason was 14-of-19 from the field.

Mason failed to score in the game with Arkansas (1/20), the first time this year he did not tally ... Mason started 14 games and is averaging 5.9 points per game, 3.0 rebounds per game and 1.0 assists per game ... The junior came to LSU after transferring from Marquette ... Martin has had five double figure games this season.

Tasmin Mitchell

Mitchell came up big Tuesday at Tennessee, playing 39 minutes and equaling his career high of 23, hitting 7-of-13 field goals with two treys and 7-of-9 free throws ... Tasmin Mitchell has been in double figures 18 times in the 23-game season so far and in the last three games, Mitchell has made 18-of-33 field goals.

Mitchell is proving to be a big factor for the Tigers as he is making his sophomore season the breakout season that LSU fans were hopeful of ... But then again, who is to say that his freshman year wasn't a breakout year ... The Denham Spring product averaged 11.4 points per game and 5.6 rebounds, making the SEC All-Freshman team while being selected to the freshman All-American team selected by Collegeinsider.com ... The only thing that kept Mitchell from being highly considered for SEC Freshman of the Year was his freshman teammate Tyrus Thomas.

Mitchell had his third double double of the year against Ole Miss (1/17), scoring 19 points with 10 boards in 36 minutes of play ... He has had five career double doubles.

Mitchell had four games as a freshman of 20 points and upped his career high to 21 in the second game of the year against Louisiana-Monroe (11/19), hitting five treys as part of his 7-of-8 night from the floor ... His other career high game of 23 came in the Texas game (12/10), hitting 9-of-18 field goals, including 3-of-7 three-pointers as well as grabbing 10 rebounds ... Against Washington (12/20), Mitchell posted 20 markers, hitting 8-of-17 field goal attempts ... More importantly, he had three assists and no turnovers on his 34-minute stat line ... When he scored the 23 against Texas, he had just one turnover with six assists in 44 minutes.

He got the SEC season off to a good start scoring 19 points against the Crimson Tide (1/9) ... Mitchell has started every game in his 59-game LSU career and he has 41 games scoring in double figures ... For the season, he is averaging 14.0 points per game, 6.3 rebounds and 1.9 assists ... His three-point percentage is 37.7 percent (29-of-77) ... His scoring average is ranked tied for 14th in the league, while he is 11th in the league in rebound average ... His overall field goal percentage of 45.6 percent (120-of-263) is ninth in the SEC and his minutes played average of 33.17 is ranked eighth most in the SEC.

Garrett Temple

Temple had his best game since mid-December at Mississippi State (2/3) with 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting with five assists and two steals in 34 minutes ... It was his best shooting game of the season and first over 50 percent since the fourth game of the season.

The sophomore who has drawn praise for his defensive play, early in the season was earning props for his scoring ability, but as his scoring has lessened in the last few weeks, he is earning notice for his assist work in several games this season.

Temple's game was his third double figure scoring game since Dec. 17, but in that same time period has posted five games of seven assists (including against Tennessee (2/6), six assist game against Alabama

(1/31) and the five assists against State ... For the season, Temple is averaging 4.2 assists per game, eighth best in the league ... He is seventh in the league in SEC games at 4.56 ... Temple posted his ninth double figure scoring game against Mississippi State (2/3), his second in SEC play this year.

He had career highs in three of the first four games of the season, hitting 16 in the opener, making 4-of-8 three-pointers, and followed it up with a 17-point performance (11/29) against McNeese and an 18-point effort against Tulane (12/2).

Temple hopes to recapture the shooting touch that had him hit 19 treys in the first eight games, but only 11 since then ... Temple is 6-of-34 in the nine SEC games from the arc ... For the year, Temple is now averaging 9.1 points per game and 3.1 rebounds a game ... Temple has 96 assists and 55 turnovers this season, an assist to turnover ratio of 1.7.

Although, the Tiger coaching staff has been able to get him to the bench a little more, Temple is still again this year one of the workhorses for LSU in minutes played, averaging 34.04, fifth in the league ... Only Glen Davis (35.43) has averaged more minutes this year for LSU ... Earlier this year against Tulane, Texas A&M, Texas and Oregon State Temple played a combined 165-of-165 available minutes.

His father played (as the first African-American basketball player at LSU), his older brother played and there was no doubt that Garrett has added to the Temple legacy with his first-year starting on the 2006 NCAA Final Four Tigers ... Last season as a freshman, Temple averaged 5.1 points with 2.8 assists, starting 35 of the team's 36 games.

Temple's Dad To Be SEC Legend

Garrett Temple's dad, Collis Temple, Jr., will be LSU's representative as the Legend for the 2007 SEC Tournament in Atlanta, this March ... Temple, whose sons Collis III and Garrett, have both followed him as LSU basketball players, was the first African-American basketball player at LSU ... He was signed by Press Maravich and played for both Maravich and Dale Brown in the 1970s, earning All-SEC honors in 1974 and presently stands 23rd all-time on the school's rebound list with 607 rebounds in three years, including a 10.5 rebound average in 1974 ... The list of LSU Legend at the SEC Tournament:

- 1999 -- Bob Pettit
- 2000 -- Durand "Rudy" Macklin
- 2001 -- Joe Dean
- 2002 -- Ricky Blanton
- 2003 -- Pete Maravich

Temple III Takes Televised "Horse" Game Last Sunday On Inside LSU Basketball

Two Sundays ago on "Inside LSU Basketball," the weekly men's basketball coaches show, executive producer Kevin Wagner sat down for a three-way conversation with the Temples: Collis, Jr., Collis III and present player Garrett. Somewhere in the conversation, it came up that the elder Temple said his sons would never beat him in golf or in a game of "Horse."

Well, a basketball was bounced out there and on last Sunday night's show, the game was on between the three Temples ... The elder Temple was first out and Collis III ended up eliminating Garrett in this made-for-television event.

Darnell Lazare

Darnell Lazare has never been a big scorer for LSU, but when he does shoot, he is usually very accurate ... Against both Georgia (1/28) and Alabama (1/31), he hit 3-of-4 attempts for six points in each game and for the season he is 54-of-94 from the field (57.4 percent) ... He is averaging 6.2 points per game and 4.0 rebounds.

Lazare returned to the starting lineup against Louisiana Tech (12/23) after sitting out two games and coming off the bench for two more recovering from a sprained ankle he suffered against Tulane (12/2) ... Lazare had his first double figure scoring game since the fourth game of the season, five total, with 10 versus Mississippi Valley on 5-of-7 field goal shooting.

Lazare started the season opener for the third time in four years against Nicholls State (11/17) and recorded his first college double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds ... His 10 rebounds were all defensive boards ... Lazare hit 4-of-6 field goal attempts and was part of LSU's impressive free-throw shooting, hitting 8-of-9 attempts ... He came right back against ULM and his 8-of-10 field goal attempts in scoring another 16 points in 25 minutes of play ... Against McNeese, his 11 points made it his longest string of consecutive double figure scoring games at LSU.

This marks the second straight year that LSU has just one senior (Darrel Mitchell last year, Darnell Lazare this season).

Ben Voogd

After playing just three minutes in the first four SEC games, Ben Voogd has played double figure minutes in four of the last five games ... Against Vanderbilt (1/24), Voogd played 27 minutes, best of the year, with three points, four rebounds, three assists, no turnovers and a steal ... Voogd played 11 minutes against Alabama (1/31), 14 at Mississippi State (2/3) and at Tennessee (2/6)

The sophomore returned to his home state for the opening of the two-game Pacific Northwest road swing against Oregon State (12/20) and with nearly 100 friends and family members looking on, Voogd hit a three-pointer and had two rebounds, an assist and two steals in 11 minutes ... He failed to score against Washington, but didn't turn the ball over in 10 minutes ... His increased playing time continued against Louisiana Tech (12/23) as he played 17 minutes with two assists.

Voogd took advantage of the opportunity that was presented him on against McNeese (11/29) and responded, coming off the bench to hit all four field goal attempts, including both trey shots and add two free throws for a career-high 12 points in 21 minutes of play against the Cowboys ... More importantly on the stat line were the six assists and no turnovers with two steals ... The Oregon sophomore's previous career high was five points in December 2005 against UNO ... Voogd is averaging 1.7 points per game, 1.9 assists and 1.2 rebounds, while averaging 12 minutes a contest ... Voogd has had 10 assists the last three games combined, including five at Tennessee (2/3).

Magnum Rolle

Rolle had his career high of nine points, hitting all three field goal attempts and all three free throws against Alabama (1/31), playing 18 minutes off the bench ... He returned to the starting lineup against Tennessee (2/6), hitting 3-of-5 field goals for seven points.

Rolle started four December games while Darnell Lazare was recovering from his ankle problems, his first career starts for LSU ... In a two-game span against Texas (12/10) and Oregon State (12/17), Rolle grabbed a combined 17 rebounds, including eight offensive ... But the Tigers hoped for more offensive production as he was a combined 1-of-10 from the field in those two games.

Against UConn (1/6), Rolle had to come in and play 21 minutes as Glen Davis was in foul trouble ... He hit 2-of-3 field goal attempts and grabbed six rebounds, along the way becoming the first LSU player to block four shots this season ... Against Alabama (1/9), for the third time this year he grabbed at least four offensive rebounds ... Rolle also grabbed four offensive boards against Auburn (1/13).

The raw talent from the Bahamas is averaging 3.6 points and 4.4 rebounds with 1.0 blocks ... Last year, Rolle was effective late, sometimes in tandem with Lazare when Glen Davis and Tyrus Thomas were out of the game for rest or more importantly, when in foul trouble.

The Hype -- Sporting News Takes Pictures

The Sporting News photo staff was in town last Thursday, taking pictures of LSU's starters in a group picture for their NCAA Mid-Season Preview cover ... It's another in a long line of things that have happened this year publicity-wise for the 2007 Tigers.

LSU joined Florida and Kentucky as the only SEC schools to host College Gameday's basketball edition for the UConn game (1/7) ... The Tigers played host to the biggest television production in the history of the Maravich Center that saw six production trucks, two uplink trucks, generators and a trailer home parked in front and back of the building for a crew of 140.

If there is a magazine, it has probably found its way to Baton Rouge at some point this season. This past week saw the appearance of the four-page spread on Davis in ESPN The Magazine. The piece was written by writer Wright Thompson to Baton Rouge as the former Times Picayune writer came to Baton Rouge in early December ... Basketball Times also has had a cover story on Davis, written by Baton Rouge Advocate writer Randy Rosetta ... Sports Illustrated and Sports Illustrated for Kids were both been in town for online and an SI For Kids story in January.

SI.Com Thinks LSU Is No. 1 Athletically In SEC

SI.com writer Nick Zaccardi has placed the LSU athletic program first in his SEC Power Rankings. Zaccardi ranked each school by averaging their positions in the five sports that are currently in action: football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and swimming.

About LSU, Zaccardi writes: "With everything that has happened on and off the field in Baton Rouge, the last two years, it's astonishing that the Tigers continue to lead the SEC in athletic achievement. The writer then essays Nick Saban bolting for the NFL and in comes Les Miles and the Tigers are going BCS bowling. The men's basketball team lost Tyrus Thomas to the NBA. "But with Glen 'Big Baby' Davis picking up the slack," Zaccardi writes, "the Tigers are proving that last season's Final Four was no slack."

He then talks about the departure of Seimone Augustus, who left last season to become the No. 1 pick in the WNBA draft. Enter a group led by Sylvia Fowles, he writes and the team is strong as ever and he cites the 24-point win over nationally ranked Ohio State. In his spotlight, Zaccardi salutes the LSU volleyball team that wrapped up a 26-6 season with an NCAA Tournament bid. The number of wins tied for the most in a season by the Tigers since 1992.

After LSU, the list in the power rankings is Florida, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Kentucky rounding out the top six. Arkansas, Auburn, Mississippi, South Carolina, Vanderbilt and Mississippi State follow

Rebounding

Rebounding was a strong suit for the 2005-06 LSU team, out rebounding 26 of 36 opponents a year ago with a 21-5 record ... Ironically in the eight games last season in which LSU was outrebounded, the Tigers were 6-2.

LSU has out rebounded 16 of the 23 teams this year and has a 12-4 mark in those games ... By out rebounding Mississippi State (2/3), the Tigers stopped a four game streak in which LSU has been out rebounded by six boards in each game.

LSU has posted a double figure rebound margin against eight of the teams -- Nicholls State +22, Louisiana-Monroe +14, Tulane +14, Texas A&M +11, Louisiana Tech +20, Wright State +10, Mississippi Valley +13 and Auburn +11.

LSU is averaging 38.1 rebounds a game, fourth in the league and they are third in rebound margin (+5.6).

Sophomores Carrying Scoring Load As They Did As Freshmen?

Last year, the freshmen on the LSU team scored 42 percent of LSU's point average of 73.1 ... Now, without Tyrus Thomas, sophomores Garrett Temple, Tasmin Mitchell, Ben Voogd, Magnum Rolle and Chris Johnson are carrying that scoring load, now joined by Terry Martin, the transfer from Texas Tech, who is also a sophomore ... Presently, the sophomore class is carrying over half the scoring load now at 53.1 percent ... The junior class which obviously features Glen Davis, is at 37.9 percent of LSU's point total.

LSU Goes On The Road To Ole Miss

LSU will be on the road midweek the rest of the year and will travel to Oxford on Wednesday for a 7 p.m. game at Tad Smith Coliseum against Ole Miss ... LSU will then return to the Maravich Center for a 2 p.m. game on Saturday, February 17, against Mississippi State on the Lincoln Financial family of networks ... Tickets are available online at www.LSUsports.net and at the LSU Athletics Ticket Office for $14 and $5 for youth (ages 3-12).

LSU shot just 8-of-24 from the field in the second half, 1-of-5 from the arc and just 7-of-13 from the free throw line as LSU lost a six-point halftime lead and the advantage they had the whole game ... Wichita State took the lead in the final two minutes and LSU never could get back even ... LSU's defense again proved to be plenty as LSU was able to beat Ole Miss for its 19th consecutive Southeastern Conference home victory ... The Tigers for the first time in three games did improve its first half shooting, hitting 11-of-24 shots for 45.8 percent ... LSU was consistent throughout the game, hitting 45.5 percent in the second half to finish 21-of-46 or 45.7 percent ... Glen Davis was held in check for the second straight game with 11 points, while Tasmin Mitchell doubled up with 19 points and 10 rebounds ... Terry Martin his four treys in a 15-point effort and Garrett Temple was again showing his prowess at point guard, getting seven assists for the second consecutive game ... LSU out rebounded Ole Miss, 35-32.

Game 18 -- Arkansas 72, LSU 52 (Jan. 20 -- Fayetteville, Ark.)

LSU's offensive struggles continued as LSU missed 22 first half shots and shot just 35 percent for the game (21-of-60) ... Arkansas shot 50 percent for the game (26-of-52) taking control of the game in the first 10 minutes, building a 39-26 halftime advantage ... Glen Davis led LSU with 16 points and eight rebounds, while Terry Martin had 10 points ... Arkansas out rebounded LSU, 37-31 ... Tigers hit 5-of-19 treys (26.3 percent).

Game 19 -- Vanderbilt 64, LSU 53 (Jan. 24 -- Baton Rouge, La.)

Again, despite Vandy making 10 three-pointers, LSU is able to hold the Commodores in check enough to have a chance, but a slow starting first half in which LSU against missed over 20 shots (24), resulted in a 10-of-34 shooting half (29.4 percent) and a 34-24 deficit ... LSU let the lead get out to as much as 18 in the second half, before whittling it down to six twice, the last at the 2:16 mark ... Vanderbilt was able to answer back and control the game the rest of the way ... Tasmin Mitchell led LSU with 16 points while Glen Davis and Garrett Temple each had 12 ... LSU shot 32.3 percent for the game, compared to Vanderbilt's 41.8 percent ... The Commodores out rebounded the Tigers, 42-36, as Vanderbilt ended LSU's 19-game conference home winning streak that dated back to March 2004.

Game 20 -- Georgia 57, LSU 54 (Jan. 28 -- Athens, Ga.)

Georgia's Levi Stukes hit a three-pointer with 0.6 seconds to play to give the Bulldogs a 57-54 win ... LSU had played a much better game against Georgia, especially in the first half, hitting 11-of-28 shots (39.3 percent), with Glen Davis having a career high six assists as LSU scored the first eight points and led, 32-29, at the intermission ... Georgia would tie the game, but LSU twice came on for a four point (39-35, 15:24) and six-point (49-43, 8:38) advantage before falling in the end ... LSU got its final points and a 54-52 lead with 4:59 to play on a Darnell Lazare bucket, but only had two shot attempts around three turnovers the rest of the way ... Davis led LSU with 18 points and 14 rebounds, hitting 6-of-11 field goals and his only trey attempt ... Terry Martin had 16 points with four treys ... LSU hit 6-of-15 three-pointers, but just 8-of-14 free throws ... LSU held Georgia to just 34.5 percent from the floor, but Georgia hit 11-of-26 three-pointers.

Game 21 -- #19 Alabama 73, LSU 70 (Jan. 31 -- Baton Rouge, La.)

Alabama rallied from five-points down in the final 4:30 of the contest to beat LSU and hand the Tigers their second consecutive home and fourth straight overall loss ... The Tigers began to break out of their offensive slump, hitting 51.8 percent of their field goal attempts (29-of-56), but LSU hit just 3-of-12 from the arc ... For the first time since 1994, LSU was perfect at the line in a game, going 9-of-9 on free throws ... LSU scored 20 points off Alabama's 14 turnovers, but Alabama had 22 second chance points to LSU's 10 ... The Tigers led 38-34 at the half and had a five-point lead, 68-63, with 4:34 left ... But LSU had three turnovers, missed five-of-six shots while Alabama was making two baskets and six free throws to swing the game ... Glen Davis led LSU with 15 points and for the second straight game, six assists, while Tasmin Mitchell had 14 and Chris Johnson, making his first collegiate start, hit 4-of-8 field goals in a 13 point, three block effort.

Game 22 -- Mississippi State 85, LSU 78 (February 3 -- Starkville, Miss.)

The Tigers offensively got off to a strong start, shooting 60 percent for the second straight first half from the field and shot over 50 percent for the second straight game, but this time defensively LSU had no answer to Mississippi State's 13 three-point field goals as the Bulldogs outscored LSU by 13 in the second half after getting a 39-39 tie at intermission ... Glen Davis was one off his career high at LSU with 27 points, including three three pointers and his league leading 12th double double of the year with 10 rebounds ... Garrett Temple had one of his best SEC games with 16 points and five assists, while Terry Martin added 14 and Tasmin Mitchell 11 ... LSU shot 53.4 percent (31-of-58) and out rebounded Mississippi State, 36-26.
