LSU MEDIA SERVICES

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Coach Johnny Jones is available in his office for early morning appointments and phone interviews. Please contact Basketball SID Kent Lowe (225-578-1864, clowe@lsu.edu) at least 24 hours in advance.

SEC TELECONFERENCE

The 14 SEC coaches are featured on a teleconference each Monday beginning Jan. 4, beginning with the start of conference play. The conference starts at 10 a.m. (CST). Coach Jones is on at 10:28 a.m. CST. To access the media only number contact Kent Lowe or SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010).

MEDIA SESSIONS

Coach Jones meets, when travel schedules permit, usually one or two days prior to games in non-conference play and usually on Mondays and Thursdays during the SEC season. The sessions take place in the practice facility meeting room. Times are announced based on practice plans with requested players brought first, followed by Coach Jones. Some travel and scheduling issues may change the time and day so media should contact the Sports Information Office to confirm start time ... Player requests need to be in to Kent Lowe at clowe@lsu.edu no later than 24 hours in advance.

THE JOHNNY JONES SHOW

Presented by Capital One Bank

The weekly call-in show takes place primarily on Mondays at 7 p.m. from T.J. Ribs on Acadian Thruway ... The show airs in Baton Rouge on local flagship Eagle 98.1 FM, on the Internet at www.LSUsports.net and on many LSU Sports Radio Network affiliates. The first show is Tuesday, Dec. 1, because of a game on Nov. 30.

INSIDE LSU BASKETBALL

Presented by Academy Sports and Outdoors

Coach Jones' weekly TV show is on a state-wide and regional network ... WBRZ-TV, Channel 2, airs the show at 10:35 p.m. Sundays. Television affiliates for the show are listed online at LSUsports.net/tvaffiliates.

The first TV show is set for Dec. 6 and will air weekly once conference play begins through the end of the regular season.

POST GAME

Coach Jones will be in the media room of the practice facility after the game, the NCAA cooling off period and his courtside radio show ... Requested players will be brought to the practice facility media room as well ... THE LSU DRESSING ROOM IS CLOSED ... To reach the media room, take the Northwest Corridor portal (where the LSU team enters the floor) ... When reaching the multi-purpose room and the glass doors, turn right ... Before reaching the steps, turn left and then take a right down the first hallway to the double wood doors and enter the media room. LSU marshalls will help direct you to the area ... The visiting coach will be available in the Northeast Corridor after Nov. & Dec. games and in the media room during the post-game process for SEC games.

JOHNNY JONES

HEAD COACH • 4TH YEAR AT LSU (16TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH)

Consistency and Improvement. The two watchwords of the first three years of Johnny Jones tenure as LSU men's basketball coach.

19 wins, 9 SEC wins in 2013

20 wins, 9 SEC wins in 2014, NIT bid

22 wins, 11 SEC wins in 2015, NCAA Tournament appearance.

Top 3 in the SEC.

In three years, Jones has won 61 games overall and 29 in the Southeastern Conference. That's more than any coach at LSU has won in their first three years on the job in Baton Rouge. Jones is also the first LSU coach to take his team to two post-season events in their first three years as the head coach.

Now as Jones prepares for his fourth season at the helm as head coach of the LSU Tigers, he prepares to bring in a recruiting class that some publications has named No. 1 in the country. There is No. 1 overall high school recruit Ben Simmons, who grew up in Australia and played at Montverde in Florida. No. 14 player Antonio Blakeney also of Florida and Mr. Basketball of Louisiana, Brandon Sampson of Madison Prep in Baton Rouge.

Throw in New Orleans native Craig Victor who has transferred from Arizona, seniors Keith Hornsby and Josh Grey, along with junior Tim Quarterman and several players with a year's experience in the program and the consistency and improvement is set to continue for LSU Basketball.

For Johnny Jones, his head coaching tenure is cementing his legacy at LSU after 21 years involved with the program:

Four years as a player.

13 years a member of Dale Brown's coaching staff.

In his fourth year as the head coach at LSU.

For Jones, just the fifth LSU alum to hold the top position in the men's basketball program and the third to have played and served as head coach, his beliefs about reaching out to fans and giving them an exciting style of basketball to watch in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center has been a strong selling point to fans and recruits alike.

Jones in his three seasons have put on the floor teams that will play hard from start to finish and play a style of basketball that makes players want to showcase their talent in a team concept.

In his opening statement after being hired, Jones brought back the "HIT" philosophy of LSU Basketball that Coach Dale Brown used when Jones played and coached. The "HIT" philosophy stands for "Hard, Intelligent and Together."

More than anything, Jones, since his hiring on April 13, 2012, has gone out of his way to embrace all aspects of the community, traveling throughout the state on the LSU Tiger Tour and speaking to civic groups and youth organizations. Included in his points in all his stops was how much he wants people to embrace LSU basketball. It's not only fans he wants to hear that message but high school coaches who are excited again to have LSU coaches visiting with them on a regular basis.

LSU and Coach Jones has a successful booster club that gathers before each game for food and scouting reports in the practice facility prior to each home game, Jones is also hosting public luncheons each month to talk to fans about their basketball program and the luncheons are drawing strong crowds each month during the season.

Besides basketball, there is life outside the arena and academics is an important and successful part of LSU life. Every senior in the LSU program has graduated during Jones tenure and in two of the last three years, the basketball program has posted a perfect 1,000 APR score.

This is Jones' third career head coaching position he has served as the interim head coach at the University of Memphis during the 1999-2000 season and began his run as the head coach at the University of North Texas prior to the 2001-02 season.

When Johnny Jones suited up for his first game as an LSU Tiger against Colgate in the Great Alaskan Shootout on Nov. 28, 1980, it would mark the first of 121 games that he would play for LSU. The player would turn assistant coach and be with Coach Dale Brown for another 407 contests.

As a player at LSU, besides playing on the 1981 NCAA Final Four team, Jones started 54 career games. Jones is the only person in LSU history to both play (1981) and coach (1986, asst.) in an NCAA Final Four.

Johnny Jones and his wife Kelli, have two children, John and Jillian.

TIGERS BACK TO NEW YORK

The games are in Brooklyn, but the Tigers are back in the New York City area for a tournament game for the first time since playing two games in the Pre-Season NIT at Madison Square Garden in 2009.

LSU also played in the "old" Garden in New York in 1970 in Pete Maravich's swan song season with the Tigers. Ironically, that was one of the times the Tigers and Marquette have battled on the basketball court.

In its long history, the Tigers have played in New York City 10 times, all at MSG, with a 4-6 record since the first game in 1946 against Saint Francis (Pa.), 62-57.

BOB PETTIT HONORS IN BATON ROUGE AT LEGENDS CLASSIC GAME

The Legends Classic certainly lives up to its name as each of the host schools are able to give special recognition to a school legend. Thursday in Baton Rouge, LSU and the host Gazelle Group recognized one of the great all-time players whose legacy survives the generational gap – Bob Pettit.

Pettit led LSU to the NCAA Final Four in 1953 and to this day remains for his three year career from 1951-54, sixth in points scored at LSU with 1,916; fourth in rebounds at 1,038; third in career scoring average at 27.4 ppg; and, first in rebound average at 14.8 boards a game.

Pettit went on to the NBA where he was an 11-time All-Star and four-time game MVP. His 1958 St. Louis Hawks won the NBA Finals and twice was the NBA season MVP.

LAST TIME OUT – LSU 78, SOUTH ALABAMA 66 (Nov. 19, Maravich Center)

LSU ran its record to 3-0 winning a decision over South Alabama in a game in which LSU was able to hold off every South Alabama run in the second half. The Tigers, after trailing 7-6, scored nine straight points to go up, 15-7, and then pushed the game to double digits at 29-19 with 8:24 to go in the first half. When LSU went up 10 against, 38-28 with 1:45 to go in the first half, the Tigers never let the lead go to single digits the rest of the way.

LSU's biggest lead came with 14:43 to go in the game on an Antonio Blakeney trey that put LSU up, 55-36.

Ben Simmons had another one of those big number nights, getting 23 points and 16 rebounds with three assists and two steals. He hit 9-of-14 field goal attempts and 5-of-6 free throws.

But Blakeney was also locked in, hitting 4-of-8 treys and 7-of-11 three-pointers for 22 points. Josh Gray came off the bench to get 11 points, while Elbert Robinson III posted his first double figure scoring game at center with 10 points before a second-half injury sidelined him.

For the second straight game, LSU shot over 50 percent, hitting 50.9 percent (29-57). LSU again had a good free throw game, making 14-of-19 for 73 percent. But LSU was out rebounded, 39-37, by South Alabama.

SIMMONS 23 POINT-16 REBOUND NIGHT HAS ESPN STAT RESEARCHERS BUSY

The ESPN researchers were tweeting quickly after LSU freshman Ben Simmons had his 23 point-16 rebound contest against South Alabama on Thursday.

Simmons became the first Southeastern Conference freshman to have a 20 point-15 rebound game since Julius Randle of Kentucky during the 2013-14 season. Randle is now with the Lakers.

Simmons also became the fifth top 10 recruit to have a 20-15 game in the first three games of their career joining: Michael Beasley, Kansas State, 2007-08; DeMarcus Cousins, Kentucky, 2009-10; Julius Randle, Kentucky, 2013-14; and, one of Simmons' opponents, Henry Ellenson of Marquette, who had 21-16 in the game with Belmont.

Simmons, with his 11 points and 13 rebounds in the opening game against McNeese (11/13) became the third player ranked No. 1 on the ESPN recruiting list since its inception to have a double double in the first game they played.

The others were pretty good as well – Anthony Davis and Kevin Love.

Simmons may have the chance to follow his teammate Monday as Freshman of the Week in the SEC.

THIS PAST WEEK: BLAKENEY FIRST SEC FRESHMAN OF WEEK; THEN ESPN NAMED HIM TOP OF LIST OF PLAYERS NOT BEING TALKED ABOUT ... YET

Freshman Antonio Blakeney's 22 point opening contest against McNeese (11/13) earned him co-SEC Freshman of the Week honors announced last Monday.

Review of preview opening games by freshman show that Blakeney's 22 points equaled the 22 points that New Orleans native Randy Livingston scored in the opening game of the 1994-95 season. Livingston also had nine assists in the game.

The 22 points was the most by any player in an opening game since Johnny O'Bryant III scored 25 points in the 2013-14 season opener at UMass.

Last Thursday, Myron Medcalf had Blakeney topping his list "Players you're not talking about ... yet! ... He wrote: "As the projected No. 1 pick in next summer's NBA draft and only the fourth freshman to secure Associated Press preseason All-American first-team honors, Ben Simmons casts a shadow over every player, program and storyline. So it's easy to see how a McDonald's All-American like Blakeney (19.3 PPG, 5.3 RPG, 1.6 APG, 47 percent from the 3-point line), a freshman who leads LSU in scoring through three games and shared SEC freshman of the week honors with Kentucky's Skal Labissiere, can get lost on the national radar. But he's a vital player in Johnny Jones' plans to guide LSU to the top tier of the SEC and the NCAA tournament."

SIMMONS ON WOODEN AWARD TOP 50

LSU freshman Ben Simmons, two games deep into his first season at LSU, is on the list of the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 50, announced Tuesday on ESPN's SportsCenter and on ESPN.com ... The 50 was chosen by a preseason poll of national college basketball experts and the list is comprised of 50 student-athletes who are the early front-runners for college basketball's most prestigious individual honor.

Simmons is one of seven SEC players on the list, representing the No. 19/23 Tigers, who are 2-0 heading into Thursday night's game with South Alabama ... Simmons had 11 points and 13 rebounds in his opener and then 22 points, 9 rebounds, 6 assists, 2 blocks and 4 steals in the win Monday night, 91-69, over Kennesaw State.

SCOUTING MARQUETTE

Marquette comes in with a 1-2 record with an opening night loss to Belmont, 83-80; an overtime win over IUPUI, 75-71; and a loss in the most recent game, to Iowa, 89-61. Three players are averaging in double figures – Henry Ellenson at 14.0 points and 9.0 rebounds per game; Duane Wilson, 13.3 points per game; and, Luke Fischer at 12.3 points and 7.3 a contest.

Marquette is averaging 72.0 points per game compared to 81 for opponents, but has a 37-34 average advantage on the boards. Marquette is averaging 42 percent from the field, compared to 46.5 percent for the opposition. Marquette is 16-73 from the arc, compared to 33-88 for opponents.

Steve Wojciechowski is in his second season as the head coach at the Milwaukee school with a 14-21 record. Wojciechowski was a star player and later longtime member of the coaching staff at Duke before earning his first head coaching stint at Marquette.

This will be the fourth meeting between the two schools with Marquette leading, 2-1. The teams first met in the NIT semifinals in 1970 with Marquette winning and then the teams split a home-and-home series in 2011 and 2012 with each team winning on the home floor.

AND ON TUESDAY

LSU will play NC State or Arizona State on the second night of the event and one team it met just last season and the other it last played in Madison Square Garden.

LSU lost to NC State, 66-65, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, in a game played in Pittsburgh last March. Arizona State had a fairly easy time of it in the second half to win the consolation game of the pre-season NIT in 2009.

JONES COACHED 100TH GAME AS LSU HEAD COACH AGAINST KENNESAW STATE

Coach Johnny Jones, early in his fourth year at LSU, coached his 100th game as the Tigers head coach last Monday night, posting 63 wins in those 100 games, more wins than any LSU coach in the SEC era (since the 1933 season) in their first 100 games on the job.

Some of the numbers for other coaches in the SEC era at LSU for 100 games:

Johnny Jones – 63 wins

John Brady – 58 wins

Trent Johnson – 50 wins

Harry Rabenhorst – 50 wins

Dale Brown – 48 wins

Press Maravich – 46 wins

The only coach who won more games than Jones in his first 100 games as head coach was C. C. Stroud, who won 79 of his first 100 games. Stroud coached the Tigers from 1913-1918 and the 1919-20 season.

COACH JONES HAS STRONG FIRST THREE YEARS AT LSU

Entering the season, his 61 wins was 12 more times than any other LSU coach in their first three years in the head coaching chair in Baton Rouge. For that matter of the head coaches presently in the Southeastern Conference who have coached at least three years at their respective league schools, only one (John Calipari at Kentucky), won more than Coach Jones in their first three years.

The LSU win leaders after three years:

Johnny Jones – 61 wins

Trent Johnson – 49 wins

John Brady – 49 wins

Dale Brown – 36 wins

C. C. Stroud – 31 wins

Press Maravich – 30 wins

Harry Rabenhorst – 30 wins

This is Johnny Jones' 21-year at LSU in some basketball capacity – 4 years as player, 13 years as an assistant coach for Dale Brown and now four years as a head coach ... He played in the 1981 NCAA Final Four and was on the bench as an assistant coach for the 1986 NCAA Final Four.

JONES OFF THE COURT

Coach Jones also has a lot going off the floor and that includes the academic side of LSU where every senior who has been in the LSU program during Coach Jones tenure has walked down the aisle to receive a degree.

During his time as coach the team has received the perfect score of 1,000 in the APR in two of the last three years.

In the community this summer, Jones was able to cut the ribbon on the first "Johnny Jones Courts For Kids" based on golf events held the last couple of years.

The first court in Baton Rouge was located at Expressway Park on South 11th Street. The park features a playground, recreation center, picnic areas, a practice football field, and a trailhead to the Downtown Greenway. The outdoor basketball court was made possible through the generosity of tournament sponsor Walk-On's and Coach Jones' courts program.

The Courts for Kids program's mission is to refurbish courts in local communities around Louisiana. This particular court was formerly a tennis court that has been refurbished and made into one full basketball court and one half basketball court. Other new amenities include new fencing, new basketball goals, bleachers, and a newly painted surface.

THE DUNK-O-METER WENT SPINNING

It started as something we kept track of in the game notes when Shaquille O'Neal and Stanley Roberts first came to LSU for the 1989-90 season and something that some years got a lot of use and other years wasn't a per game occurrence.

Against Kennesaw State (11/16), the dunk almost seemed routine as LSU 13 of LSU's 33 baskets were dunks. Ben Simmons had six dunks, Aaron Epps and Brian Bridgewater 2 each and Tim Quarterman, Antonio Blakeney and Brandon Sampson one each.

For the year, Simmons has 10 of LSU's 21 dunks.

ASSISTS ARE GOOD

LSU has 21 assists for the 33 made baskets (63.6%) and for the three games, LSU has had 53 assists for 90 baskets.

LSU has won 32 straight games when it has 10+ assists MORE than its opponent and is 144-5 since 1975 in this category after a 21-10 advantage in the Kennesaw State game (11/16).

MORE ON THE LEGENDS CLASSIC

The Legends Classic Tournament is an annual early-season college basketball tournament which started in 2007. Eight teams compete in the Legends Classic, which has four of the top programs from the most prestigious conferences in the country tip-off the season with Regional Round games played on their home courts before heading to the Barclays Center in Brooklyn to face each other for the Legends Classic championship. The remainder of the field will participate in a series at Kennesaw State. Every participating team is guaranteed four games.

Games have been played at Barclays Center since 2012. The 2011 edition was played at Izod Center, 2009 and 2010 were played at Boardwalk Hall and 2007 and 2008 were played at the Prudential Center.

THE FRESHMAN SHINE

Well, it wasn't probably hard to imagine that the three LSU freshmen wouldn't shine at some time or maybe start. But all of them were in the lineup and in double figures in the opener versus McNeese (11/13), two with double doubles --

The stat lines on the three top 40 recruits --

Antonio Blakeney -- 22 points, 10 rebounds, 1 assist, 1 steal; 7-16 FGs, 2-5 3FGs, 6-10 FT

Brandon Sampson -- 18 points, 3 rebounds, 2 assists, 1 block, 2 steals; 6-12 FG, 4-6 3 FGs, 2-4 FT

Ben Simmons -- 11 points, 13 rebounds, 5 assists, 2 blocks; 4-7 FG, 3-4 FT.

The threesome -- 51 points, 26 rebounds, 8 assists, 3 blocks, 3 steals; 17-35 FG, 6-11 3 FGs, 11-18 FT

Against Kennesaw State it was Simmons who had the big game with 22 points, 6 assists, no turnovers, while Blakeney had 14 points.

Then versus South Alabama (11/19), Simmons and Blakeney both contributed each in their own way:

Ben Simmons -- 23 points, 16 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 steals; 9-14 FGs, 5-6 FT

Antonio Blakeney -- 22 points, 3 rebounds; 7-11 FGs, 4-8 3 FG, 4-4 FT

Totals -- 45 points, 19 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 steals; 16-25 FGs, 4-8 3 FGs, 9-10 FT

For the season, the freshmen are 1, 2 & 4 in scoring average: Antonio Blakeney 19.3 ppg, 5.3 rpg; Ben Simmons 18.7 ppg, 12.7 rpg; Brandon Sampson 10.3 ppg, 3.7 rpg. In SEC scoring entering the weekend, Blakeney is T4, Simmons is 7. Simmons is 1 in the SEC in rebounds, one of four players in the league in double figure boards early; and, sixth in field goal percentage (63.2%, 24-38). Simmons is eighth in the league in assists at 4.7 assists per game.

SOME GOOD THINGS HAPPENING FROM RETURNEES

Some returnees had good games for the Tigers as well as Tim Quarterman had 11 points, six rebounds and three rebounds against McNeese (11/3).

Quarterman was a second-team preseason selection in the coaches and the media polls. Quarterman through three games is averaging 7.7 points, 2.3 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game.

Although his status is unknown at the time this is written, the start of the sophomore season for Elbert Robinson has been spectacular. More aggressive under the basket and much stronger and in playing shape than as a freshman when the decision was made to only play him in 11 contests with just six points to show for his season ledger. He now has 24 points in 49 minutes in his three starts, hitting 9-15 FGs and an impressive for a big man, 6-of-8 at the free throw line.

He had posted the first double figure game of his career, 10 points, when he was injured in the South Alabama contest (11/19).

Sophomore Aaron Epps may be asked to fill some of the minutes for Robinson and the sophomore from Ball, Louisiana has been averaging 13 minutes a contest and averaging 3.3 points and 3.7 rebounds. All his points came in a career night of 10 points with seven rebounds on 4-of-8 shooting and two blocks against Kennesaw State (11/16).

JOSH GRAY DELAYED START OF SEASON HAS GONE WELL

Josh Gray was unable to play the opener against McNeese State (11/13), but he has made the most of his two appearances off the bench, averaging 23.5 minutes, and a third-best on the team scoring average of 13.5 points per game with 5.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists average in the two games.

Against Kennesaw State (11/16) he scored 16 points on 6-of-11 shooting with two treys. He also had six rebounds, six assists and three steals. It was his 12th game of five or more assists at LSU. He followed that up against South Alabama (11/19) with 11 points on 5-of-11 shooting with four rebounds.

Gray, a senior in his second year at LSU, the first time in his college career he has played at the same school in successive years. Last season, Gray averaged 7.1 points per game with 11.8 assists.

WILL LSU START TWO AUSSIES MONDAY?

One of the ways that LSU can go if Robinson cannot play is with another seven-footer senior Darcy Malone of Canberra, Australia. Malone started all five games in Australia during the August tour, and while yet to score this season, has played 22 minutes in the three games. Malone has played in 47 games in his career with eight starts, all last season.

If Malone and Simmons start, it is believed this would be the first time two Australians would have started for the Tigers in the same game. The Tigers have had such players as Olympian Eddie Palubinskas, Andy Campbell and Ray Borner play for LSU during the time Dale Brown was the head coach.

OR IS ANOTHER OPTION BRIAN BRIDGEWATER?

He should definitely see some action in the post, but what happens in practice Saturday and Sunday will be the ultimate decision maker if Robinson can't go. Bridgewater, whose brother Brad played for LSU earlier in the 2000s, has played an average of 9.7 minutes in the three games, hitting 4-of-7 field goals and scoring 10 total points.

He is averaging 3.3 points and 2.3 rebounds a contest.

LSU FINDS A NATIONAL RANKING

Entering Monday's change of polls, the Tigers are ranked 19th in the USA Today Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press Media Poll. LSU's pre-season ranking of 21 marked the first time the Tigers were ranked since the final regular season poll of 2009 when LSU was No. 19 in the AP poll.

The second ranking of the year marks the 197th time LSU has been ranked in the AP poll since LSU's first ranking in December 1952. LSU was last ranked in the preseason poll at the start of the 2006-07 season and the 11th time overall.

SIMMONS PRE-SEASON SEC POY; AP ALL-AMERICA SELECTION

When the SEC TipOff took place at the ESPN/SEC Network studios in Charlotte, the league and national media panel selected Australian freshman Ben Simmons as the preseason player of the year. Junior Tim Quarterman was named to the second team.

Simmons was named a preseason selection to the Associated Press All-America team announced on Monday. Simmons joins seniors Kyle Wiltjer of Gonzaga, Georges Niang of Iowa State and Buddy Hield of Oklahoma, along with junior Kris Dunn of Providence.

While this is the third straight year for the pre-season All-America team selected by a panel of 65 media voters to have a freshman, it is only the fourth time a freshman has been named to the five-player team.

The others — Harrison Barnes of North Carolina (2010-11), Andrew Wiggins of Kansas (2013-14), and Jahii Okafor of Duke (2014-15) — all were high picks in the NBA draft after leaving school early.

ARE THE BLOCKS STILL IN PLAY

The Tigers and its fans looked for the block a lot last year to bail LSU out defensively as Jordan Mickey blocked over 100 shots for a second straight season. Mickey and Shaquille O'Neal are the only two players in LSU history to record 100 blocks in a season.

In the exhibition game, LSU blocked 15 shots spread among four LSU front-line players.

The Tigers blocked three on the first night (11/13, McNeese) with Simmons getting his first two career blocks with Sampson posting one and spread out nine blocks against Kennesaw State (11/16) among seven players — Ben Simmons and Aaron Epps two; and, one each for Elbert Robinson III, Brandon Sampson, Antonio Blakeney, Tim Quarterman and Brian Bridgewater.

As a team, LSU blocked 204 shots, the fifth time the Tigers have blocked 200 shots in a season. The school record is 234 in 2005-06, when a freshman named Tyrus Thomas blocked 99 shots.

In the first three games, LSU has 15 blocks, an average of 5.0 a game.

FAST-PACED TIGERS

LSU has averaged over 70 points each of the three seasons that Johnny Jones has been at LSU, last year averaging 73.4 points per game. That ranked fourth in scoring over the last decade at LSU behind the 75.2 the Tigers averaged in 2005, the 74.8 in 2009 and the 74.7 in 2014 ... Last year marked the first time LSU has averaged over 70 points more than two consecutive seasons for the first time since the 1995-96 campaign when the Tigers averaged over 70 points for the last of 14 consecutive seasons ... LSU is 50-16 in the Johnny Jones era when scoring 70 or more points (20-2 last year). LSU in Jones' era is now 23-3 when the Tigers top 80 points or more (including the first two games). LSU has failed to score 70 points 33 times in that period with a 14-21 record, 2-9 last year.

The 91 points Kennesaw State scored marked the sixth time LSU has topped 90 in the Coach Jones era with a record of 5-1.

POSSESSIONS

Things are supposed to be better in this new rules era, but possessions has never been a problem. LSU had 80 possessions in the Southwest Baptist game, scoring on 45 of them averaging 1.225 points per possession.

The Tigers in the opener had 73 possessions, scoring 38 times and a points per possession ratio of 1.11.0 and similar against Kennesaw State with a 1.182 points per possession ratio of 42 scores in 77 possessions. Against South Alabama, LSU failed to score at a 50 percent clip or better in its 72 possessions but had a points per possession average of 1.083.

Last season LSU averaged 72.9 possessions a game, ninth in the country, and 72.7 possessions in the 2013-14 season.

FIRST HALF/SECOND HALF

It's an interesting little note on the stat sheet, but it has been an obvious trend, especially in the first two games. LSU has dominated play for much of the first half against McNeese, Kennesaw State and South Alabama, outscoring opponents 125-76 (including 40-28 thanks to a couple of runs in the first half of Thursday's USA game).

But in the second half, LSU has only outscored the three opponents a combined, 129-125.

REBOUNDS

The one glaring thing that has been emphasized in practice for the last week or so has been the ability of LSU to get opponents off the glass. LSU has just a 120-118 lead in overall rebounds after three games, but the Tigers are down 33-39 in offensive rebounds in those three games.

South Alabama (11/19) had a 39-37 advantage over LSU overall, but more importantly a 14-8 advantage on the offensive end of the boards.

50 PERCENT SHOOTING WINS

Here's the interesting thing about the Arkansas win to close last year's regular season ... When Keith Hornsby's buzzer-beater three-pointer went in, it gave LSU a game shooting total of 33-of-66 or 50.0% ... That made LSU 9-0 last year when shooting 50 percent or more from the field and 21-1 in the Johnny Jones era at LSU ... The last three of those in 2015 came on the road.

Now LSU has gone back-to-back 50 percent shooting nights and victory to run LSU's streak presently to 16 straight wins when shooting 50 percent or better ... LSU shot 50.8 percent against Kennesaw State (11/16) and then 50.9 percent Thursday against South Alabama (11/19).

For the season, LSU is 90-of-183 for 49.2 percent, compared to 74-of-191 for opponents (38.7%)

CAN LSU GET IT DONE IN REGULATION?

LSU had five games go into overtime last season and that set a school mark for the most overtime games in one year at LSU ... The Tigers were 3-2 in overtime games this season and LSU is 5-5 in the 10 overtime games that LSU has played in Johnny Jones' three seasons.

LSU in four previous seasons had played four overtime contests - 2011-12, 2004-05, 1983-84 and 1968-69.

Four of the overtime games came against SEC schools.

Against Missouri and Georgia, the first two games in SEC play in January, marked the first time LSU played back-to-back overtime games since Dec. 2010 when LSU lost to Coastal Carolina, on Dec. 13, 2010 and LSU defeating McNeese on Dec. 16, 2010.

The last time LSU played back-to-back overtime games in the SEC came during the 1984 season when LSU defeated Georgia (69-68) on Feb. 4, 1984 and then Tennessee, 61-59, on Feb. 6 of that year.

Overall, LSU all-time is 39-53 in overtime games.

6 SEC ROAD WINS (8 OVERALL) IN 2014-15;

FIRST SEASON SINCE 1946 WITH 3 18+-POINT SEC ROAD WINS

LSU's win at Arkansas in the 2015 finale gave LSU six SEC road wins and eight wins on opponent's home courts in the 2014-15 season ... The Tigers finished the season 6-3 in the league and 8-3 overall on the road ... The non-conference wins were at No. 16 West Virginia and UAB in December with the SEC wins at Ole Miss, Florida, Vandy, Tennessee, Auburn and No. 18 Arkansas.

Coach Jones is 16-20 in road games and 11-16 in SEC road games as LSU's coach ... One has to go back to the 2008-09 season when LSU won six straight SEC road games en route to the league title to find the last time LSU won six in the league on an opponent's home court ... The eight road wins was the most since the record season of 1985-86 when LSU won 10 road games (including four at schools on the islands of Hawaii) and certainly the most against Division I teams in a season.

LSU's 84-61 win over Auburn on 2/24, was LSU's 16th road win of 18 or more points since 1975.

It also is the first time since 1945-46 season that LSU had won three road league games in the same season by at least 18 points:

BREAKING DOWN A LITTLE MORE IN THE SEC ROAD WINS

In the six LSU road wins in the league a year ago, LSU averaged 78.5 points per game, compared to 66.8 points for opponents. The Tigers made 178-of-353 field goal attempts (50.4 percent), compared to 37.9 percent for opponents. LSU also shot over 40 percent in those six games from the arc (45-of-109) while opponents shot just 24.6 percent from three-point range.

AT THE MARAVICH CENTER

The Tigers concluded the home season 13-4 for the year at the Maravich Center, 5-4 in the league ... With the win Thursday, Coach Johnny Jones is 43-10 in his years as Tiger head coach ... LSU has posted 16 years of at least 13 wins in the Maravich Center's 44 years of play ... LSU was 8-0 in non-conference play last season and is 277-39 in non-conference games in the building.

NEUTRAL COURT GAMES

LSU has played 297 neutral court games since the first one was played in 1925 ... LSU is 143-154 in such games with a 1-4 record last year and a 5-7 in Johnny Jones' first three seasons.

TIGERS GOING FOR FIFTH CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASON

With 22 wins last year, the Tigers easily earned their fourth consecutive winning season (18 in 2012, 19 in 2013, 20 in 2014 and 22 in 2015). That tied for the fourth longest run of consecutive winning seasons in program history:

11 - 1982-1993; 6 - 2002-2007; 5 - 1977-1981; 4 - 2012-present; 4 - 1932-35

LSU's 22 wins tied for 10th most wins in a single season with the 1992-93, 1969-70 and 1952-53 seasons ... A total of 13 teams at LSU have won at least 22 games in a season topped by the 1980-81 team which won 31 games.

WILL IT BE ANOTHER 23 YEARS

When Tim Quarterman posted a triple-double of 18 points, 10 rebounds, 10 assists versus Ole Miss in the Maravich Center on Feb. 28, 2015, it marked the first triple double in just under 23 years. On March 19, 1992, in the NCAA Tournament first round game against BYU, Shaquille O'Neal of LSU posted the points-rebounds-blocks triple of 26-13-11 ... It was the sixth and final one of his career and he currently has the record along with Michael Anderson of Drexel (1985-88) for most triples in a career. There is also one recorded triple-double for Pete Maravich from 1969.

With Ben Simmons and his ability to pass, score and rebound, certainly the triple double is a part of the lexicon that may not have to wait another 23 years to take place.

AUSTRALIAN TOUR A SUCCESS

The Tigers were able to use their once-every-four-years foreign tour opportunity to bring Ben Simmons and Darcy Malone home to Australia where LSU played five games against teams from the National Basketball League and area all-star squads. LSU was 3-2 on the trip playing before packed gyms and arenas and gaining lots of new fans and media attention in Australia.

Simmons averaged 20 points and 9.0 rebounds in the five games with 27 assists, 11 blocks and 18 steals, while Tim Quarterman averaged 16.4 points and 5.2 rebounds. Also averaging in double figures was Antonio Blakeney with a 13.8 points average (6.2 rpg), Keith Hornsby 12.3 points per game and Brandon Sampson at 11.8 points per game.

In a four-quarter game with a 24-second shot clock that reset to 14 seconds after an offensive rebound, LSU averaged 87.2 points per game, shooting 43.8 percent from the floor. LSU was out rebounded in the five games and average of 42.6 to 39.0.

TIGERS A MID-DAY TV DELIGHT IN AUSTRALIA

The Tigers are a mid-day staple in Australia this season with live broadcasts of many of the LSU games, including this tournament on the ESPN/ESPN2 channel in Australia. The country is the home of Ben Simmons and Darcy Malone.

So when the Tigers tip off in the evening here in Brooklyn, it will be "G'day Mate" back home with a tip of 11 a.m. on Tuesday in Australia. Australia is 15 hours ahead of Baton Rouge.

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR LSU

LSU knows it will play on Tuesday. What's not known is opponent. The game will either go at 5:30 p.m. ET if LSU loses (ESPNU) or 8 p.m. ET (ESPN2) for the championship game. The game will also be broadcast on the affiliates of the LSU Sports Radio Network.

After that LSU will return home, but its next game will be its first on a road course as it will take on the University of Charleston at the TD Arena on Monday, Nov. 30, before playing on Dec. 2 at home against North Florida. That will be the final game before the mandated concentrated study period-final exam break. After the North Florida game, the Tigers will next play on Dec. 13 at Houston.
